CUSTOM EMAIL CAMPAIGNS

Finished HTML

- The HTML must be submitted as a file with an .html extension.
- The HTML file should be sent as an attachment to avoid erroneous code that may be added when forwarding.
- Images not hosted by the client need to be provided separately in a zip file with other pieces of associated content.
- It must be written using basic HTML in-line styles. Internal CSS style sheets are not universally rendered across the wide variety of email providers.

If completed HTML cannot be provided, WATT is able to create a basic HTML design. Email campaign material creation at this level may incur fees in addition to the cost of the send.

The following must be supplied by the client before the basic HTML design can be started:

- Header Banner: 600-650w x 200-250h, .gif or .jpg format (under 130K)
- Body of Text: selectable format (i.e. .pdf, .doc or email) in which text can be copied and pasted into the necessary file format.
- Additional Images (2-3): 100-200w x 100-200h, .gif or .jpg format (under 130K)

If digital files are created on a MAC, they MUST be zipped and attached to an email as an attachment. If the file is not zipped, it becomes embedded within the email content, and cannot be extracted.
