What people say about NQV8

JINX

Dog Food for the Modern Dog

"As an emerging brand that's at the very beginning of our journey, the NQV8 team has served as our north star as we navigate the strategic planning phase of our business. The team has been a fully-embedded partner, adding value across all areas of product strategy and development. Their combined 100 years of experience is evident at every turn, and we continue to feel confident that with them by our side, we are building something incredibly special."

Terri Rockovich, Co-Founder & CEO at Jinx

Carolyn Kennedy

Critical Influencer - Nutritionist

"Working with the NQV8 team is a wonderful experience. They are very professional, knowledgeable, and are able to keep complex pet food projects moving forward on time. Their connections to the industry and insight make them a very valuable resource for anyone that is looking to start a new pet food brand, expand their existing product portfolio, or relaunch their existing line of products. I am always excited when I learn of another project with NQV8, as it means the project will be run smoothly, efficiently, and the product will definitely succeed. I always learn a few things along the way, and laugh a lot, both of which are important for any project too!"

Carolyn Kennedy, Owner at CK Nutrition

Big Creek Foods

Co manufacturer

"The NQV8 team has brought a well-balanced support system to our new business developments efforts. Our company is in a rapid growth phase and the project management and expertise provided by NQV8 has been very helpful to our team in keeping projects moving and customers happy. NQV8 has been very professional, communicative, and just easy to work with."
